

Hands Anointed To Create

The inspiration for Hands Anointed to Create came to me during worship one night at church. His presence was so strong that evening when the Holy Spirit spoke to my heart:

“I created you to create. Your hands are anointed.”

I walked down to the altar, knelt before the Lord, and dedicated my hands to Him. I asked Him to help me create what He wanted me to create.

As I knelt there, everything around me seemed to become a thick, colorful haze. My hands felt as though they were on fire, but there was no pain—only the overwhelming presence of God and the anointing I felt in that moment.

I am still truly in awe of what I experienced that night.

Hands Anointed to Create is a reminder of the calling I received: to place my hands in His hands and allow Him to create through me.
